“ I often wondered why I became your "chemo and radiation buddy" back in 2019 - I thought we were so different. Whatever the reason, we spent many hours at Holy Cross together. I remember us reading an article from a magazine about the Florida Keys - how many islands are in the Keys I asked you - FYI there are 1700 islands that make up the keys. We also saw an article about Saint Augustine and I think you said you had never been. Now you can go from where you are.

You were such a trooper Alma. Even when you started chemo again the end of 2021 you had such a good outlook. You had so many people who cared for you. I know I was not around as much in these recent years, but please know I thought of you often and your influence has stayed with me. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Alma my friend, I will miss you. You are a woman of valor, a gentle, caring and thoughtful person who enlightened the lives of all who were lucky to know you. You are a warrior who never complained in the many wars of your heart illness. You battled with dignity and grace. You are loved.

Alma, you always will be remembered in my heart, and I am pretty sure in the hearts of many others. You know that your name "Alma" in Spanish means "soul". Praying for your "alma".
