“ Yoko & Yana I pray that the Lord grant you the strength during these difficult days. I will surely miss her. We spoke earlier this year & she suggested that we have a reunion with our classmates residing in Florida. This was to take place early summer prior to us knowing about COVID 19. Seeing that she no longer drive she would ask her daughter to take her. Augustine was very proud & happy to be a grandmother. She once said to me she hoped to be one before she dies. She was extremely proud of her daughters & their accomplishments. I will always miss you my friend. Rest In Peace!!

That says grieve not for me
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song
The good life I lived when I was strong”*

“ Augustine was a beautiful and friendly person. We met at Carron Hall Vocational School. The last and only time we spoke since school days was after her mom passed a few years ago. she was her gentle sweet self. May her soul rest in peace.
