“ About was a great mother and wife to her husband Carl and her children Lachish and Jason. I knew her as a smart and quiet person. She was a fighter, overcoming a stroke, and still performing as wife, mother, and provider for her family. I regret not getting to know her better. I pray now for her family, that the Lord would be their strength, peace, and comfort during this very difficult time. God bless you all.

My dear friend Avis, We live you, but God loves you more, so He called you home early so you can be rewarded for the work you did here on earth.

God gave you the gift of teaching, and you certainly imparted that knowledge with passion and grace to anyone and everyone who crossed your path.

I will always cherish the fun memories when we worked at Seagull School. You will surely be missed.

Sleep well my friend. May your soul rest in peace. 🙏 🙏
