“ Love you Uncle Carl, Always Have Always Will. Your Niece Loy ”

“ Dear Carl,

The last time I saw you, I don't know if you knew I was there. I stood beside you and looked at you, remembering not the man lying before me, but the little brother I first knew.

I often find myself thinking about our childhood in Green Island, where our story began. I can still see you as that energetic little boy who loved to go swimming and proudly marched through town with the Boys Brigade every Sunday. Those were happy, simple days that I will always cherish.

Later, our family moved to Lucea, where we continued to grow up together. I eventually moved to Kingston, and when it was time for you to finish school, Mama brought you to live with me. I was so happy to have you there. Those were special years that allowed us to grow even closer before I eventually migrated to the United States.

After I settled in America, our brothers and sisters came one by one. You were the last to arrive because you had some business to take care of before leaving Jamaica. We were all excited, waiting for the day you would finally join us. It was a joyful time when our family was together again.

I remember your wedding so well. It was a private ceremony, and by God's grace, I happened to be in Jamaica at the time. I surprised you and Avis, your beautiful bride and the mother of Lachish and Jason. Being there to witness that special day is a memory I will always treasure.

One of the greatest honors you ever gave me was asking me to name your first daughter, Lachish. That meant more to me than you probably ever knew. It was a gift I have carried in my heart all these years.

Carl, I admired your strength, your hard work, and your love for family. I also appreciated the times you stepped in to help guide and discipline my daughter. You were always willing to help, and I never forgot that.

You know, Carl, people often said you were Mama's best son. Mama loved all of her children dearly, but the bond the two of you shared was truly special. I know she was proud of the man you became.

Before I finish, I want to tell you about a dream I had. In my dream, Mama was standing at the gates of heaven with her arms wide open, waiting to welcome you home. When I woke up, I felt a peace that is hard to describe. I truly believe you are together again.

Thank you for being my little brother. Thank you for the memories we made in Green Island, Lucea, Kingston, Jamaica, and here in America. Those memories will stay with me for the rest of my life. Until we meet again, rest peacefully.

*Love always,
Your Big Sister,
Gean*

“I grew up with Carl Errington Rigg. We went to primary school together. Me and his siblings were close. When we were young we used to shoot birds, go fishing, and play sports together. His parents were very kind to me. Although I haven't seen him in years I always ask his sister about him. He was a great friend and he will be missed. May he rest in peace. - From Milton McLean
