“ Mi condolencia esta con la familia. Sé que este momento es muy doloroso, por eso me gusta escribir a las familias que están pasando por esto para dejar un pensamiento positivo. La Biblia nos menciona en Juan 5:28,29 que: "No se maravillen de esto, porque viene la hora en que todos los que están en las tumbas conmemorativas oirán su vos y saldrán, los que hicieron cosas buenas a una resurrección de la vida, los que practicaron cosas viles a una resurrección de juicio." Esto nos enseña que hay esperanza para nuestros seres queridos volver a vivir y de nosotros verlos otra vez.

¿Porque podemos estar seguros de que va a ver una resurrección en la tierra? Por qué dios es la fuente de la vida como menciona Salmos 36:9. Y el deseo de él es que las personas vuelvan a vivir, dice que "sentirá anhelo" por resucitar a nuestros seres queridos (Job 14:13-15).

Esta es una esperanza que me ha traído alegría y quisiera compartirla.

“ Tiene mi más sentido pésame. Perder un ser querido es una situación crítica y difícil. Cuando experimente eso sentimientos de primera mano me fue de mucho provecho conocer la bella esperanza de Revelación 21:3,4 de que pronto la tienda de Dios estará con la humanidad y el pondrá fin a toda angustia y la muerte por siempre jamás.

“ You were always very kind to me and my children. You were very patient when trying to teach me Spanish, especially over the phone. You were quiet but a very strong woman. You will be missed but in our hearts and memories forever. Sympathy and prayers for all your family.

“ I will always remember Sra. Julia especially her kindness shown to me and my children. She always tried to teach this Gringo Spanish over the phone. I use to have to write it down then ask Gerardo what it means. How we use to laugh when sometimes together we had to draw pictures to communicate. Also she was a strong woman but always gracious. Always kind to her grandchildren too, esp., when visiting (imposing) on her. Jerry remembers the big family barbaque when he visited and Chris remembers Abuela waking him up with rap music on intercom and feeding him breakfast. Her spirit will be missed but her memories will live on in our hearts. Our deepest sympathies to everyone in the family. Sending our love and condolences. Sincerely, Theresa
