“ *My Dearest Mama Girley,
As I sit here today, I'm thinking of the many vacations you spent with us here in Boynton Beach, FL until you eventually migrated to US and lived with us for a while. I remember our many shopping sprees and numerous conversations about life, love, family, etc. I will forever admire your strength, wisdom, humor and kindness. Although you are gone, I see you in my husband and children. I'm grateful to God that I had you as a mother-in-law. I pray that you will forever Rest-In-Peace.
"We will not remember days, but we will remember memories".
Forever,
Your Daughter-in-law

“ Mama, we will remember your fearless spirit, laughter, and smile. I will never forget the summer I spent in Jamaica, watching Walker Texas Ranger and listening to the stories you and Papa told on the porch. I know my love of animals must have started from observing you and Papa feed the stray cats leftovers after each meal. May your courageous personality and charisma be left in our hearts forever. R.I.P. to a witty, fun-loving grandma who never let anything weaken her spirit, not even glaucoma!

Sincerely,
Carla, Kevin, Corey and Family

“ Auntie Girlie, I remember you as a strong, no nonsense, God fearing woman. Always look laughing, witty, so full of humour. I was happy that we got to see you a few months ago and you remembered every one. You laughed and joked with us. We took pictures. We will always remember the memories that you left behind. Mama Girlie you are reunited with Uncle now. Walk good. We miss you. Rip

My beautiful, sweet, kind and lovely godmother, I will always continue loving you. Though you were million miles away, in my thoughts your near. I had hope that I will get another chance to have you hug and kiss me again the way you always do whenever I visit you. Though your eyes are now closed I know that you've gone to be with your Lord. I will see you again, I'm gonna try hard to see to it, because I must see you again. Sleep my love, sleep, the people of God does sleep to rise again when the savior Jesus come. My regards to my god sister Sharon and god brother Mikey and rest of family. Love you always!
