

Cardinal Earl Chong

December 23, 1941 - January 21, 2016

Cardinal Earl Chong, otherwise known as Cordie, Cord, Gord, Gordy or Cody is a man as unique as his name - a name that was often mistook but he never minded that. He was a leader, a husband, a father, a teacher, a musician and a mentor. He was a man who touched everyone he met with an unforgettable vibrant and god-loving character. He was a caring and understanding husband to a strong-spirited woman and mother, Claudia Chong. He was active in his church, and in his family life and a force to be reckoned with; he was a loving father to three children, Jacqueline, Sean and Melani who revered him as a fun-loving dad who showed them the world and how to survive with strong Christian values.

Cordie was an athletic and adventurous man. As a 2nd degree black belt in karate, a baseball umpire, a motorcycle enthusiast; his family was always exposed to the outdoor life, camping, boating, hiking, fishing, cottaging and travelling. With family in New York and in Florida, the family took several road trips and family vacations. But they never actually had to leave home to experience Cordie's sense of adventure. Cordie was a public great speaker, but often seen as quiet spoken man with a bold character. He loved to laugh and had an endless and vivacious sense of humour. If you had the privilege to meet and be a part of Cordie's life, there will always be a part of his loving spirit in your heart. We will never forget you.

“ Wow, I still remember an intense conversation about shaving legs and how to do it well. Definitely a time before the internet and you tube videos! Cordie was an amazing youth sponsor and I am so sorry for your loss!

“ My heart goes out to Jax, Mel & Sean...I know what you're feeling.

Your father was an amazing person full of love and laughter. May the many happy memories help to ease the ache in your heart. He is now with your mother, out of pain and at peace. You have another guardian angel watching over you.

I can just see him and my Dad creating all sorts of fun in heaven...never a dull moment when they got together.

*Our thoughts & prayers are with all of you.
God Bless,

Melani, (Jacqui, & Sean), & family – sorry for your loss, your Dad (Dad-in-law, Grandpa), was well loved because of the loving man he was.

*Uncle Cordie, thank you for coming up last year, sorry we weren't able to connect. I will always remember you with a *smile* on your face, and from now on imagine you reunited with Aunt Claudia in a close embrace & dancing (& singing) in heaven.*

My condolences

“ I had the good fortune of meeting Cordie last Christmas when he came to visit Jacquie and her brother and sister. Although his health was on the decline I was still able to get to know him and understand what he might have been like when he was in good health. He had a great sense of humour, rarely complained, except when you interfered with his 2 favorite shows, Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy! I don't think he ever actually guessed any of the questions or phrases but his eyes never left the screen. It was really hard watching as he fell down or when he struggled to swallow his food but I am glad I was there to help knowing that this would probably be his last visit to Canada. Two things I would like to comment on. The first is to say how much I love and respect the Chong family. The way you love and support each other, the strength you showed throughout this ordeal I can't even begin to imagine how I will cope when God calls my parents home. Lastly I will end by saying this. God has called Cordie home and he is in a far better place. As Christians that is our promise that we will live forever in our new glorified bodies. One day we will all be reunited in heaven with our loved ones, what a celebration that will be because if I have learned one thing being with Jacquie, Jamaicans know how to party! Love you all, Cordie you will be missed but I know one day I will see you again in heaven, God Bless
