“Darling David, you were a bright light for many of us and the impression you made never fade. When we first met, you and I clicked immediately and the rest was history—a pair of sarcastic goofballs! We traveled the world together, talked endlessly about music (particularly Mariah!), culture, love, and life. I’m grateful for the time we had together over the years and even just a couple of weeks ago.

Although the sun will never shine the same, I'll always look to a brighter day...#OneSweetDay

Love always,

David, as a young child you always were a gentle soul. That didn't change as you grew up to be the man you were. Your love and natural concern for people was in all of your actions. Your will be missed but never forgotten. Love you.

“ David was an integral part of our Primary family for the past 6 years, and was beloved by our entire team. Every day he brought a unique warmth, kindness, and empathy — to all of us, and to our customers. It takes a special person to work in customer care, living up to the high expectation of wowing our customers each day when faced with countless challenging situations. David did that, first as a wow specialist and senior wow specialist, and then as a supervisor, in a completely natural and special way that endeared him to us and to our customers. David recently won a company award for our core value "Find a Way" -- he received multiple nominations from people across the company, and was described as "a magician for his ability to find solutions to even the most complex issues." We are so grateful to David, and for having the chance to know and work with such a special person. - Christina and Galyn (founders of Primary)

“ There are no words to describe what a loss this is. I've known David since his first day at Primary, I remember meeting him before his interview – he wore a pair of boots that clicked loudly on our office floor and he was so embarrassed about it every time he had to walk around. That was all it took for us to start giggling together and that's always how I'll think of him – silly, lighthearted and always ready to laugh with anyone. I'm so lucky that I got to experience his kindness, warmth and sense of humor over the years. Happy hours out in NYC after work, lunches shared and messages exchanged with David were always the best parts of my day. I'll miss you always.

“ David has been my friend since 2009 and I just saw him alittle over 2 weeks ago and we had a blast. He was everything you could want in a friend. He had so much love and lift left in him. I am heartbroken and will never met anyone as amazing as he was.

“ You simply couldn't find a kinder, gentler, or funnier person than David. I was lucky enough to work with him for a long, long time and every conversation was a pure delight. He was truly so genuine and warm, and these qualities always shone through in everything he said and did. We had an impromptu night out on the town in NYC years ago and it was SO much fun—a memory I'll never forget. I'm so grateful that I had the opportunity to know you in this life. You'll be very missed.

“ I worked with David at Primary. I didn't have the opportunity to know him well, but he stood out to me as one of the most interesting, funny, and above all, nice people I have met. He will be missed.

“ david was all heart. when i first met him, he had this infectious energy that just drew you to him. we'd bond over our love for platform boots and music. he'd make fun of me for eating brown rice cakes for breakfast (rightfully so!) his music recommendations were always top tier and he was the hardest worker i knew. he put his heart and soul into everything he did, and never faltered. he loved his family SO MUCH. i felt the love in every conversation about them and how much he looked up to and cared for his mom. we would talk and vent and crack jokes in every convo, even when he moved away we always kept in touch and checked in. our friendship was one i will cherish for the rest of my life, and i feel immensely lucky to have known such a sweet soul. david, there was no one like you and there will be no one like you. i love you and miss you so much. ❤️

“ Knowing David for over 10yrs in NYC. Brought so much light to the group. Always cared for everyone around him. Ratchet but classy. It was so good to hang again when he visited NY couple weeks ago. He was so happy and I miss that smile so much! May he rest in peace. Love you David❤️❤️❤️

“ David was the best neighbor that I could ever imagine having growing up. From our Summers spent in the make shift clubhouse, to adventures with Spice Girls, to our bake off's (David could make the best box cake ever), we had so many memories. When I said I was going over to David's house, my family always knew me, my sisters, cousins and friends would be in great company.

David cared deeply for his family. He loved his grandmother, siblings, mom, uncles, nieces, nephews and more. You could see the passion in the way he connected his family to the world and protected their honor through and through.

Thank you David for all the memories I will always treasure. Thank you for always being you. A rockstar, a natural witty comedian and the brightest in a room. Sleep peacefully. Much love bro
