Delma, Delma, Delma! This seems so unreal. You were like sunshine in human form and I'll always remember you as such. Take your rest my dear. Your fellow MHS '79 inmate. Pat Williams. ❤️

“ Didn't know Tuesday 18/10 @ 4:38am would have been the last time I spoke to Maurine. Always checking up on me and leaving a word of encouragement. I know she became one of my fans 😊. I will surely miss her.

I'm at a loss for words and grateful I had the opportunity to see Delma at one of our MHS reunions, the first and only time since high school. Delma had great energy and a beautiful spirit. My condolences to the family and May she Rest In Peace ❤️🕊

“ I am writing with tears in my eyes, we were like Bonnie and Clyde, the mother I inherited. Oh you were so full of life, my dancing buddy, my cooking buddy, we basically do everything together. I was not ready for this so many plans we were making and you were just taken away from us just like that. I can write a book about us, so many questions only God knows why u left us so soon, I cant beleive you are gone. I will cherish those wonderful memories we had. Love you sincerly, feeling so broken 💔😭 dont know if i will every come to terms with this... Jah ..Jah. Love you unconditionally Maur...Andria.

“ Molo, I'm still trying to come to terms with this unimaginable pain and loss. You've been there through thick and thin. I appreciate all the support over the years. We'll miss you, we love you. I hope you're dancing, at peace and resting.
