“ *A temporary pain
Grieve not my dear cecile
The sun will shine again
Death separates u and your mother's body
But your hearts remain the same
And the memories of your love
Will soothe away your pain
And carry you over.*

“ Instead of holding our heads to cry, let’s celebrate a life that shone like a beacon from the sky. At this time when we are feeling dejected and torn, reminisce on the good times. Remember her for that warm effervescent smile, fresh like the burst of spring on an April morn. Cherish those thoughts and long after she is gone her memory will live on. She felt the wind blowing unkind. The rocky road was getting too hard to climb. And the clues she searched for seemed even harder to find. So she closed her weary eyelids and said goodbye for the final time.
