“ *To Min's dear family,
We have the priviledge of meeting Min through her sister Rose on different occasions. We found her to be a quiet lady who loved by all.
We share in your sadness at her passing, but we know she has really changed her address and is with her heavenly Father. May God's comfort embrace all of you now and always.

“ The best things in this world cannot be seen or touch but felt in the heart. Even though your body is at rest and you will be missed here on earth we take comfort in knowing that your spirit is freely roaming in paradise and has returned to God who gave it. Mom mom, I will not say good-bye but instead say see you later.

“ For all the 2.5 decades I knew Louise, I always marveled at her ability to bring out the 'humanity' in everyone around her. She exemplified the sweetest and most well-meaning of hearts a human being could have, and she shared that heart selflessly with all till her glorious call home by her maker. Right now, I smile through my sorrow, all because I can just picture Louise's sweet and caring face, even in the midst of some of her most trying encounters which I witnessed. God bless you eternally, Louise.

“ Louise....words alone can not express my feelings on knowing that I will no longer be able to call on you for family matters. You are a great mother in-law that any son in-law could ever wish for. You are the root that holds all members of the family together! No doubt that all your grand children will miss their yearly birthday cards that always arrive on time. May your soul rest in PEACE! Love. Ade.

“ Mom mom,

I thank God for your life. I thank Him for blessing me with a loving grandmother who showed me true love and acceptance. I am thankful for our many moments, you taught me life lessons that I will always cherish. I am thankful that our final physical moments together were ones of prayer, laughter, wisdom, and love. Spiritually, I trust that we will forever be connected. May your soul rest in perfect peace, may you rest embraced by the everlasting love of God.
