“ Grandpa Eddie was my best friend. Growing up I was raised up north and he always cared for us girls. Everytime we came down I got to visit with him. Days in his shop when I was real young, to days when he closed shop and was relaxing at home, and even the most recent times listening to music in the hospital. He was a blessing to have in my life and the memories will never change! He chose to let us call him grandpa not by blood but by love. He was my everything. Not a day has gone by or will that he doesn't come to mind. 💕💕 Grandpa Edward Anderson was a wonderful, caring man, and had a laugh to brighten anyones day. Now he is always there by heart💕💕💕

“ I remember when I bought mom and Eddie a surround sound system, and Garfield hooked it up to a computer. We went to YouTube and started jamming to Bob Marley. Eddie was in heaven laughing and nodding his head in delight of the sound. Eddie loved listening to Bob.

“ Dean Anderson I miss my dad he had a good sense of humor one time he made a toy gun out of wood and no bullets and not able to shoot and he said if i catch you shooting anyone im going to wip your behind and send you to bed then he smiled at me!!! He also gave me many good advice. Its important to tell our parents while they are alive that you love them. It was 2 months ago when he was in the nursing home when I said i love you dad and he said i love you too dean and we gave each other a hug that's important because he's not here right now but that memory is unforgettable i know i will see him again where we will be able to eat fish dinner together laugh and continue our lives again the bible promises that the dead will rise again and jah don't lie yes dad we will be together again. I love you dad!!!!!! from your son Dean
