“ My fondest memory of Uncle Edwin is going up to visit him at Parade where he had a tailor shop. He was always glad to see us and always have a piece of candy for us. In recent years when I visited him in Florida he gave me the best ginger candy. I will miss him. To Sharon and the rest of the children our deepest condolences. We know he is with his Lord. Rest well my Uncle a job well done.

“ Thanks to all friends & family members who shared such beautiful memories, kind words/thoughts and encouragement to our family.

We appreciate the collection of beautiful flowers, floral arrangements, your presence - both in person & online. Our dad was a very social being & he would have said, "what did I do to deserve this life & family". I would have answered, " that's because we love you to the moon & back".

Rest in peace, Pa, until we meet again!

“ Hi Pa,

It's me again, Terry, Mrs. Williamson, as you always say. May the angels guide you on your journey into eternal life.

I saved all the birthday recordings you sent me over the years. At times, when talking with you, I couldn't get a word in the conversation as you asked & answered ALL the questions ... But, I was patient & spoke afterwards & then you'd say, "I know you are working now".

No worries about our subscription for the monthly magazine, "The Word Among Us", I'll be reading it to you every day.

God bless you Pa & you'll always be in my heart.

“ I Join with the entire Cuffe in celebrating the life and memory of wonderful Husband Father Brother Grandfather Uncle and friend who has lived such an attractive life and has touched the life of so many people. A cricketer that stays at the wicket and scores 100 runs is always applauded with a standing ovation followed by hats off. Edwin's 100 years of life has resonated among his family and friends and although his innings is now closed his time spent at the wicket will always be remembered. Well done done. " Pa !! "❤️❤️

“ Pa, I will always remember you !!!
As a man of God with dignity, respect and love
I will always cherish those precious memories
Waking us up for family devotion
At the sound of an invented bell,
You never forget to start the day with prayer
Sometimes we laugh, smile and cry together
I will always remember your words of wisdom and encouragement
Still lingering in my ears each day
And guide me along life 's way
I feel proud to be your daughter,
As a child you fondly called me Joey, but as I grow up
With respect you called me Mrs. Sterling,
I will always remember your delicious chicken soup on Saturdays
You were indeed a great family chef
I do appreciate all the things you taught me
To love God and make peace
How can I forgot those short tailored pants
Surely you were the best father,
Forever, I will always remember you !
I love you, pa.
Rest in peace until we meet again.

“ I am deeply saddened by Pa's death. I remember we would sit, talked for hours, had a few drinks & played dominoes. He was always my partner-in-crime when playing dominoes.

Also, back in Jamaica ... a long time ago, I sat nervously as he gave me a haircut when I was dating, Terry (his daughter, now my wife).

I always respected him when it came to his family - he always expressed positive thoughts & blessings ... I will miss him.

He had a long, blessed & beautiful life, ... take care Pa until we meet again!

You will be missed dearly, but I know you're in the hands of God and at a better place now. May your soul Rest In Peace. 🙏🏻🙏🏻

“ My dearest Dad/Papa/Pa, I will certainly miss you. I will miss calling you everyday just to chat. We often talked about when you are gone who will I call and like a loving and affectionate father you were, you reassured me with a chuckle “Ma Rach everything will be alright”. I am trying to be strong but with every memory of you that I reflect upon. It makes me so sad and I breakdown in tears. I will miss your Birthday singing and your words of wisdom. I know that when we meet again, we will have lots to chat about!

“ My Dad who was affectionally called "Father Grumps" , not because he was miserable, but he was a disciplinarian. There were a lot of rules which we had to abide by, hence the name given. He was a shrewd businessman, a member of the lodge fraternity and an avid churchgoer - he was one of the senior ushers. Dad we will miss you and we will still carrywith us all the lessons you have taught us.

Rest in Peace!!!
