“ Chris was one of my dearest friends and confidant. We have known each other over fifty years. Chris always strived towards excellence in whatever she set her mind to, when you think she had accomplished it all she always found something else to work towards. She was an amazing friend, thoughtful, caring, supportive, and loving. Chris and I had many memorable times together especially our days in New York. Chris loved hosting parties and dancing and oh how we enjoyed those parties some of our best times. Her ambition and drive paved the way for her to accomplish anything she set her mind to and to be the best in her field was awe inspiring. Chris my friend you will be missed.
Thank you for being one of my best friends.
Love always Rita

“ My sister, Dr. Carruthers, you have been the matriarch of the family. You were instrumental in exemplifying excellence, but only in the most gracious of manners. You are indeed one of the best women to have walked this earth. Although I will miss you, your legacy lives on, in that of fortitude, an interpersonal relationship with The Lord, a philanthropist, and a Diva. I know you are in heaven. Love you always - your sisters Frances and Shirley.

“ Calm, caring, elegant, eloquent and generous, Chris and I spent many hours together playing scrabble. She loved the game and would always beat me! In the past few months as her illness progressed scrabble, was the one thing that would make her get out of bed. We also spent many hours together when I would take her to her appointments. I will miss her greatly. May her soul rest in peace.

“ At a time when I wasn't doing so well, Auntie Chris granted blessings unto me that I will now and forever be grateful for. She taught me that nothing is impossible if you try your best and to always keep your faith.
When I was a 9 year old boy, I spent the whole summer with Auntie Chris in Jamaica.
That summer I learned what it is to be a proud, yet humble Jamaican. My time with her developed my sense of culture and sparked my love of music( especially piano). To know Auntie Chris was to have known a beautiful soul. I regret the time that her and I have missed. May the Lord continue to Bless her spirit and her memory.
