“ Enid Willams-Black was a very dear friend and my former sister-in-law. She was a kind and caring person who loved her family and reached out to her friends to keep in touch. She was always one you could call upon for comfort if there was a problem.

She was also a devoted mother who cherished her children and always attended to their needs. She accepted her responsibilities and never complained about any difficulties she faced. She was a woman of faith who always depended on God's guidance and protection.

Enid will be sorely missed by all of us who loved her and enjoyed her company. Her laughter and cheerful voice will always be remembered and cherished.

My family and I send our deepest condolences to her children, grandchildren and other relatives.

Rest in peace in God's loving arms my wonderful friend.
