“ To the Family of Eula Collie: my deepest sympathy to you all on the loss of your loved one. Praying for comfort, & strength in your time of sorrow. Matt5:4 Blessed are those that mourn for they shall be comforted. Keeping you all in prayer.

“ Mrs. Collie and her late husband, Uncle Oscar, had so much humility and respect among themselves and for others. My heart goes out to their children and grandkids during this time of loss.

I last spoke with Eveth at Uncle Oscar's homegoing service. Though our encounter was brief, after not seeing her for over 45 years, she graciously acknowledged my presence and warmly invited me to join the family gathering before I returned to Chicago.

I pray that God's strength and peace surround you and bring comfort in the days ahead. May your mother and grandmother soul rest in peace.

“ Mother Eula Collie was a beautiful lady. I first met her at our church in Hackensack. I later had the opportunity to visit her home in Jamaica with Eveth and was blessed to enjoy a most delicious Jamaican cuisine. She was always kind! I will never forget her. Praying for you all!
