“ Miss Dolly, you, Delores and my mother Kathleen were good friends over four to five decades. My mom, Delores and now you are now gone. Definitely not forgotten. There are cherished memories of you, your family and friends will have. Smiles and tears will come but you were an important part of everyone's lives. You will truly be missed by ALL! May you rest in glory! Love Jennifer (in Boston)

“ My amazing Gran Gran. I can still hear your infectious laugh and see your bright smile. I loved our moments together hanging out when I visited you and you would always take me to the Chinese buffet round the corner from your house.

“ Aunt Dolly we are surely going to miss you. You were a true go getter and the life of the party. We worked over the years together and travelled over the world and went on many cruises. We always do stuff to together. You were such a kind and wonderful person to my family. You would always use to say I was a young chicken now I'm 67 and I still don't feel like a young chicken. We never fuss nor fight and that's a true love for each other. You always made me know you're a jealous person when I introduced you to my friends you let them know you know me first haha. You're even my first granddaughters God mother that's how way back we go. Thank you for being my friend condolences to your family and much love.

“ Gran gran I will never forget what you told me. You said to me live your life and follow your heart and that is exactly what I have done and will always do. You told me to do what makes you happy! A prayer that you taught my mum 'pray mama pray papa pray to God to bless me and make me a good little girl for the serve the lord for Chris sake Amen'
This prayer passed on to me which has now been passed on to your great grandchildren Xavi and Xanaya. Every night Xanaya will say this prayer before she goes to bed.
Although you are no longer here with us I know that you are still within us. Guiding and protecting. Until we meet again. I love you gran gran.

“ Gran Gran. When I think of my gran, I always hear her voice saying ‘hello my beauties!’ Or the songs she would sing over face time to me and the girls. The memories of gran gran taking us to her favourite Chinese whenever we visited and looking at all her pictures and memories that she loved. We always have a funny gran gran story to tell, memories to recall with laughter.

“ Dolly was like a second Mum to me. I have wonderful memories growing up in Brentford and hanging out at the house with Marcia and Yvonne nearly every day 😊 Dolly would treat us like her own. When she moved to Florida we would call each other and would have wonderful conversations about her travels and she spoke so fondly of her grandchildren. Dolly was a woman of faith and talked about her Church and church family often. She would always say to me only God knows when it is our time. I will miss you Dolly. RIEP ❤️

“Mum was charismatic, strong, loving, kind and a staunch protector of family. She was humourous, hardworking and beautiful.

The things that brought her happiness was mostly family. She adored her family. She being surrounded by them. Mum was a social butterfly. She had many friends and was loved by the church community. Mums infectious personalty and witty and cheeky sense of humour brought people closer to her.

Mum had multiple interests. One in particular was an interest in marine life. She spent long days sitting by the riverside in Brentford UK where she lived before emigrating to America. During the weekends, on a Sunday morning, after cooking the peas and half cooking the oxtail she'd set off for the short walk to Brentford Marina. Mum sat for hours watching the Peacocks congregating, perched by the river bank, spreading their colourful tails. She often said,

"Peacocks are for good luck".

While dipping a hand and wading the water, waiting for large gold fish to swim by.

Mum loved her tall rubber plants she'd talk to them by name. Tenderly wiping each leaf with milk. Mum was spiritual by nature. Her Christian faith and strong connection with God taught us how to pray from a very young age.

"Thank God for everything" she told us.

Gratitude was always the order of the day.

How did she influence your life?

To be the best version of ourselves. To always respect our elders and strong family values. Her excellent work ethic and stoic mindset which she passed on to her family.

Yvonne (daughter)

I remember the time when.....

I remember when she came to stay on one occasion we took her to Windsor castle in UK she would climb the trees with her grandchildren Becky and Simeon and ride their tiny bikes. She was fun and would joke around a lot.

Marcia (daughter)

I remember my last visit to Sunrise Florida. One morning I woke up to a giant cockroach on the wall. You came running as fast as you could limping with your walker, and long broom. I hid behind you and the walker, needing your motherly protection. We laughed sooo much that morning. Uncle Eric came by to save the day he booked in the pesticide team.

Patricia and Maureen (daughters)

Remember mum singing alot and always working hard.

Naomi (granddaughter)

I remember the times when you sang "enjoy yourself enjoy yourself its later than you think". She would always say to me look at my beautifuuuulll granddaughter loool.

Rhianna (granddaughter)

I remember her saying I was beautiful like you once , then I'd say my pretty dolly.

Joshua (grandson) I remember...

The way she would always whisper soo loudly thinking she was being quiet but it was soo loud.

Aaron (grandson)

Gran gran used to keep me up to fashion with clothes and computer gadgets she had me being the thr cool kid on thr block part of the reason I have grown up being a cool guy from The Nortorious Ladbroke Grove.

Gran gran has always been on my phone line and Facebook gran gran kept up to date with every generation of contact I am certain she has a an intstagram burner account watching us all .

Gran gran always called me when Liverpool was playing to take my attention away from the match I am sure she used check every match fixture

Gran always used to drive everywhere in her red sports car and but my giant cookies

Jamaican phrasal verb

"Soon" could mean anytime anyway and "any how".

My gran gran's favourite lines from when I was about 14 was - "Mi Soon dead!!! Lol"

Gran gran flying over to Spain to my wedding was like a movie I will tell the story to my film director friends watch this space the name of the movie will be called The " Jamaican gran gran's hurricane journey to Spain"

Simeon and Becky (grandchildren) called her grandchildren gran and remember her as being fun.

My beautiful friend Dolly! We met working at Johnson and Johnson in 1989 and we became real good friends she was more like a mother to be. We spend many holidays together with my children and my mom. She had a lot jokes and taught me a lot of Jamaican sayings. She will be missed. May the Lord bless her dear soul 🙏❤️

Mum and I were similar in some ways, we both loved fitness and keeping fit which has past down to her Gran daughter Becky and her children.

Mum and I would go to the gym some times with my aunty cherry and mum would show me how strong she was and how much weights she could lift, even in her 80's.

Mum would be at the front of her aerobics class right in front of the instructor, showing her she could copy all her moves.

Mum loved dressing nicely, matching her clothes with bags, shoes, jewellery and make up. She would always ask me to leave my clothes with.

Even the night before she passed she asked me to take my outfit off and give it to her.

She loved to sing whilst talking, and as a child I would entertain her by dressing up and singing famous songs. She loved it, it soothed.

She loved dancing and even with her bad knee she jived at my son Simeon and daughter Beckys wedding.

She was a hard worker and me and my children have inherited this from her too.

Thank you for these things mum. ☐😭

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family of Fredricka Levi, also fondly called, Dolly. She had a kind heart of gold & a wonderful personality. She was very sociable with a charming, infectious smile as she told stories of days gone by. Dolly loved to dance and I am sure, she and the other angels will always be dancing in her new home. She will be missed by everyone who knew her. However, those we love don't go away they walk besides us everyday. Dolly will be forever in our hearts & thoughts thinking of all the happy memories we shared. Heaven has certainly gained another smiling angel. May her soul rests in eternal peace.
