

Gail Alicia Lobban

January 5, 1973 - March 8, 2023

Gail Alicia Lobban

Gail A. Lobban died peacefully on March 8, 2023 following a long illness.

It wouldn't be fitting to say that Gail lost her battle, because she never stopped fighting, no matter how sick she became, she was always determined. When others would have broken Gail stayed strong. Through her, we knew what resilience and perseverance truly looked like. There was no quit in Gail and though she is no longer with us, it doesn't mean she lost her fight.

Gail is survived by her children Alanna Henry and Maxwell Henry, her mother Winsome Lobban, sisters Carline Lobban and Deon Cousins, brother Merrick Lobban, aunts, uncles, niece, nephews, cousins, other family members and many friends.

She was preceded in death by her father Keith Lobban and brother Maxwell Lobban.

She will be deeply missed but never forgotten. May her soul rest in peace.

“ Smart, resourceful, thoughtful and intuitive are the words I have come to associate with my friend Gaily. Ive known her for just over 40 years now and recall our many conversations together. Some serious, like when we talk about GOD or current affairs, other times not so serious especially when she was teasing me. Gaily you were loved and "rated" big time by me. We talked about some of your life plans especially your "fight plan". No worries GOD has a bigger better plan. Rest in peace Sis.

Love is what she gave from the heart, even when her voice was not that strong, her thoughts in words said, I am still here. It's not easy to navigate through this period of grief and the process of healing, but I am thankful I encountered this lovely human being. To the children who patiently waited at work in Jamaica and to the rest of the family who brought such joy, you could tell in the phone call. Your loved one's spark now shines elsewhere. May God continue to comfort your hearts.
