

George Vassell

September 5, 1933 - October 2, 2010

George Emmanuel Vassell peacefully departed this life at the age of 77 on Saturday, October 2, 2010 at 5:30 am at Kindred Hospital-Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

Born September 5, 1933 in Savanna la Mar, Jamaica, he was the son of the late Claude Ballentine Vassell and Elsada Walters .George was a dedicated husband and leaves behind his wife of nearly fifty years, Dorrel Vassell of Lauderhill, Florida. George was a devoted father, and is mourned by his seven children; Claude Vassell of Lauderhill, Florida, Michael Vassell and wife Dawn of Tampa, Florida, Christopher Vassell and wife Betty of Pensacola, Florida, Sandra Palmer and husband Dwight of Woodsboro, Maryland, Fabian Vassell of Plantation, Florida, Courtney Vassell and wife Hortense of Pembroke Pines, Florida and Debbie Vassell Mitchell of Powder Springs, Georgia. George was also the doting "Grandpa" of Michael, Jr. (Neil), Stephen, Anastasia, Jessica, Mikala, Ashley, Jonathan, Alexandra, Malik, Veronica, and Janan-Aliya; and "Great-Grandpa" of Antaniece, Keandra, and Akuma. Also mourning his passing are siblings, Adrian Vassell, Linda Vassell, Ishmael Vassell, Roland Vassell, Lloyd Hall, Glenford Scott and Sonia Cox. Mr. Vassell is also lovingly remembered as "Uncle George" by a multitude of nieces, nephews and "Mas George" to a myriad of family and friends world wide.

Mr. Vassell was a talented and well known electrician, beginning his career at the age of 15 in Jamaica. He started many young men in the trade. Mr. Vassell loved to play dominoes, watch cricket, and be with his family and friends, or just read the Jamaican Gleaner on his verandah.

Mr. Vassell lit up any room into which he walked. His passing will be mourned by countless family and friends world-wide.

Tribute Wall

“ George Vassell

October 06, 2023 at 12:11 AM