

Germilus Nonord

December 22, 1944 - January 23, 2026

Germilus Nonord was born on December 22, 1944, in Nan Panache, Jean Rabel, Haiti, to Jenius Nonord and Rosalie Val. From an early age, he displayed remarkable resilience and maturity. As a young boy, he moved to the city to live with his godfather, where he grew into a kind, respectful, and intelligent young man whose character left a lasting impression on everyone around him.

On May 30, 1970, Germilus married Anathanase Janvier, and together they raised six children: Anita, Kenta, Robenson (deceased), Wilbens, Livienne, and Lorina. He also lovingly acknowledged two additional children, Jean Bermene and Philip, embracing them fully as part of his family. His legacy extends through many grandchildren and great-grandchildren who carry forward his spirit and values.

In April 1980, driven by a deep desire to create better opportunities for his loved ones, Germilus immigrated to the United States. He joined his brothers, Justin and Claudius, in Tampa before later living in several cities and ultimately settling in Fort Lauderdale.

In his new country, Germilus reinvented himself through education, determination, and hard work. He trained as a plumber and eventually founded his own business, Nonord Property Maintenance, a company that reflected his craftsmanship, reliability, and commitment to serving others. Known for his intelligence, quick learning, and unwavering willingness to help, he built a life defined by perseverance, humility, and love.

Germilus leaves behind a legacy of strength, generosity, and quiet wisdom. His journey—from rural Haiti to building a foundation for his family in the United States—stands as a testament to his courage and devotion. His memory will continue to live on in the hearts of his children, his family, and all who were touched by his extraordinary life.
