“ Tribute to Gladstone Ellis

From: Genevieve Barnes - Jamaica

“Let every man be occupied and occupied in the highest employment to which his nature is capable and die with the conscientiousness that he has done his very best.”

A kind thought or word is the cornerstone of a caring soul. That was Gladstone Ellis.

Mr. Gladstone Ellis was the epitome of true compassion. As Colossians states- The chosen people of God are holy and loved dearly, they clothe themselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. So was Mr. Ellis.

He carried a friendly disposition and was the consummate gentleman whose heart was indeed chivalrous. He provided protection and support to those he came in contact with and was always ready to assist educationally as his philosophy was “Education is KEY”.

It was Beth Moore who fittingly said: “the pain of a hard good-bye is the heart’s tribute to the privilege of love”. I will miss my little packages of ground provisions from the country, roasted breadfruit, ackee, sweet-sops, and other goodies.

Emerson said, “The hero is no braver than the ordinary person: the hero just fights five minutes longer”. My brother has fought several battles in which he included those five minutes; that’s why he has become my hero. The battles are over and you have won Mr. Ellis.

Thanks to Almighty God I was privileged to meet Mr. Gladstone Ellis.

Rest In peace, my Daddy, Brother, Friend.
