“ I met Mrs. Lewis in Feb. of 1973 on the campus of Trinity University. Shortly after meeting her I was invited to her home where I met her three children and was re-introduced to great southern cooking and hospitality. Mrs. Lewis had a way of making you feel welcomed. Although she didn't try to project her attributes, you knew she was the smartest, friendliest and, most genuine person in the room. She loved her family and had strong feelings for her church, friends, community and social justice. I love Mrs. Lewis and will think about her often.
