“ Danny! No one travels through life without experiencing the loss of someone or something dear. The loss of a loved one through death is one of life's most intense challenges, and the pain can be overwhelming.

Jesus, the greatest empathizer, understands what you are going through and will stay beside you

Lean on Him and allow Him to continue the process of healing your broken heart.

Cling to the Lord and He will comfort you through the process of grieving and, in the future, will replace your sorrow with great, unending joy !You will see Hyacinth again, Joy comes in the Morning!

“ *To Donna William's and family
My deepest condolences for your loss.
I have felt this loss also. The days will get better with time. A time of fond memories and an Everlasting hope to all that believe. One day we will ascend up to the Father joyfully forever in His presence.*

Pastor Williams am very sorry to here about the passing of Mrs Williams. I know you're hurting because you guy were so close and loving to each other. I always talk about you both how every Friday you would bring all these groceries and bags and you guys told me if anyone pass by and say they're hungry make sure you packed them a bag and don't let them leave hungry. Mrs Williams and I always sing together she have a beautiful voice she will surely be missed.R.I.P my love.

“ Thinking of Hyacinth is like looking in her face!. I never saw her when she was not smiling. According to my brother, if she were not smiling it was because she was laughing. That melodious voice of hers rings in my ears. She had such a winsome personality. She greeted you with such warmth. Pastor Williams, I can only imagine the, pain, hurt and void that you are left with. It is in times likes these that you have to trust the creator most!
May he give the family the strength they need during this time.

Hyacinth was a basket of sunshine. She had a pleasant smile which radiates the atmosphere. Her singing voice brought soothing comfort and peace to any depressed soul. Pastor Williams you have lost a gem but we have the blessed hope that we will see Hyacinth. Please take comfort in the promises and rest in the arms of our Heavenly Father.

“ Memories of Hyacinth are born out of an admiration of her from a distance. I admired her gentle, charming, welcoming demeanor. Her hellos always seemed so genuine and disarming. I learnt to appreciate the wonderful addition she made to her husband's ministry. More importantly, she manifested the true face of a Christian lady, one I will always remember with a smile across my face and a warm tingle in my heart. Thanks for the silent mentorship.

To Danny and the children; may God continue to enfold you in his comforting arms.

“ Hya has we called her was a very sweet, gentle and pleasant lady. I have know her for many years and we worked for the same organization back in Jamaica. She was one who never backed down from giving a healing hand in whatever and wherever she was needed.

I am better to have known her and worked alongside her when Danny pastored my church. I will miss that infectious laugh of hers. Sleep well Hya, see you in the morning my sister. Family stay strong in the Lord.
