“ Some of my earliest childhood memories include Janis and her siblings. We grew up across the street from the Barrow family and my siblings and I spent many happy times playing with them. We lost that close contact when we all immigrated from Barbados.

I was privileged to see Janis again when we were both visiting Barbados in the mid to late 1980s, but have not seen her since. I am very saddened to hear of her passing.

To the Barrow family, Jones family and all the extended family and close friends, please accept my deepest sympathy. May God wrap each of you in His loving arms of comfort and give you the peace that only He can give.

With Love and Blessings,

Karen Birkett Green

“ I am grateful to have been Janis' friend in life and will continue to be her friend in death, honoring her in all I do.

Cammie, Jeanine, Marissa, Bradley & Cameron, your dear Jan, Dr. J. have been a wonderful wife, mother & grandmother. Nana received her with open arms. "She has fought a good fight, finished the race, and kept her faith. Now there is in store for her a crown of righteousness". Sleep on my sister, sleep and take your rest. May your soul rest in eternal peace and rise in glory.

“Janis was such an ,adorable family oriented angle who went out of her way to make everyone she met very happy and comfortable. She accommodated those she knew personally and those she met through others. She shared what every she was blessed with and supported her family and us her extended family in what every way she could.

Her infectious smile can still be felt and one can still hear her smooth calm and soft voice.

We will miss you dearly Janis but God knows best. You have been a blessing to many including me and we pray that as you finish your course here that our God will grant to a safe place in his bosom which is free from all challenges.

We thank her Dear loving husband, Cammie and her children Jeannine ,Marissa and Bradley for allowing us to share her and we thank God for giving her to us. We will always love you Jan.

Rest eternal Grant unto her O lord and let light perpetual shine upon her. May she and all faithful departed rest in peace and rise in Glory.
