“ *Dear Jean,
You are gone but your example of stewardship will never be forgotten. I often draw on your faithful service to God and others as inspiration to keep me going.*

I am forever grateful for your friendship.

“ Dear Jean,

All too soon you have gone to rest, but in my heart I believe that God is glorified by your life of humility, faith, and love for all. Your exemplary Christian life will be remembered. I will treasure the memories of you as a gracious sister-in-law, and a loving aunt to Patrice and C.J.

I am sad now, but I also remember that joy comes in the morning.

May your rest be sweet, sweet!

“ Our Very Dear Jeanie,

You haven been a great neighbor and friend for over 10 years.

How fast good times fly!!

I know we will remember you for all times to come. For example when we get to sit in the back yard to enjoy a cup of tea, like we did from time to time.

We celebrate the happy times we had together.

We cherish your always positive attitude, your soft touch, your sincere compliments, and your ever present smile; no matter what.

We thank you for teaching us what is important in life. To not worry about the little stuff because they are 'little' and not worth a heartache.

Above all, we thank you for teaching us that it is not worth it to worry about the little (and a lot of the big) stuff. Instead to invest our energies in appreciating our good fortunes in having such friends as yourself.

Your loving neighbors,

Farah, Al, Daniel, Dayla, and Nina Casey
