“ You were not someone who was afraid to smile, laugh, show emotion. You always carried a positive energy everywhere you went. We need more souls like you. More black men in the world like you for sure who are strong physically, mentally, spiritually and emotionally. It was an honor being your team mate. It was a blast and I hope you're out there somewhere still spreading the best of vibes bro! Much love to you and to your family and everyone that you touched. God bless brother

“ Bo, you were a prodigy and will forever be a legend! I’m proud of the way you carried yourself and was always selfless. No matter what, you always had that goofy laugh and could turn a serious situation to all jokes lol. I couldn’t stand when you used to slap my leg during track practice but I’ll never forget that bonding moment when we actually became cool when we were icing cuz lord knows I couldn’t stand you lol You were the only one I trusted with the aux cord too and that’s rare. Any time we reunited it was always good vibes and laugh from your grand opening of your barber shop, when you tried to help my cheap ah with my credit back then, to your new gym. We used to be singing Kellz and H-Town at the top of our lungs smh lol I pray for your son. Koby will be a great man like you for real. You job on earth is complete and your spirit will forever live. I love you man!
