No hay palabras que puedan expresar esta tristeza que embarga mi corazón. Fuistes una parte importante en mi hogar muy especialmente para mis hijos los cuales te vieron como un segundo padre siempre dedicados a ellos y eso fue una labor que sin tu ayuda jamás hubiese sido posible ahora me toca seguir sola de la mano De Dios. YO TE EXTRAÑERE TENLO POR SEGURO 🙏❤️

“ Jose was like a second grandfather to me and will be someone I'll always remember as family. My earliest memories include him babysitting my brother and I when we were younger. I don't know why but I remember watching James and the giant peach one night at his house. My most recent memory of him was the night of wedding. I remember him dancing and having so much fun. After my husband and I shared our first dance he was the first person to come on the dance floor and give us a hug! Looking back at my wedding photos, I saw many of him laughing and smiling and that is how I will always remember him. Although it hurts me to know he is no longer with us, I'm happy he is in a better place and that he is finally reunited with his wife.
