“ Joe,
Back in the day, when we were kids all living around 63rd in Sunrise, we sure had some fun and crazy times didn't we? So many memories keep popping in my mind of all the nights we hung out on 63rd, all the parties we had together (house to house, depending on who's parents were out of town) and all the places we went together. Never a dull moment- say "hi" to those who of our friends who are already in heaven - Tom B., Mike T., Greta, Joe B., Scott B., Mr. & Mrs. B, and many of our other dear friends. You will be missed, but you left me with many great memories. I can still hear you laughing and see you raise a beer, smiling as you say, "who loves ya baby?"
Love ya,
Debi

“ Joe Joe, There are so much I could say about what a great guy you are. But the greatest thing you did was marry into our family. You are loved and always will be loved by us. There was never a dull moment when you were with us. Keep us in your heart because you are always in ours. R.I.P. little brother
