“ Joseph Benes Sanon was born on May 21, 1925 in Jeremie Haiti, by father Louis Millien and mother Rosilia Sanon, he was the 2nd youngest of six siblings. In 1956 he met the woman who would later become his wife and mother of his 5 children when she moved in next door to him, Joseph and his wife Lorvienna Sanon were married for 50 years at the time of her untimely passing in 2007.

In 1970 Joseph traveled to the United States to seek a better life for his wife and family. From time to time he would travel back to visit the siblings that he had left behind. After living in New York City for 22 years Joseph and Lorvienna retired in Sunny South Florida.

Joseph is survived by his five children: Garry, Elsie, Elza, Gyna and Sandie.

Grandchildren: Cindy, Joelle, Stacey, Sheena, Garry Jr., Wendy and Chanel.

Joseph will always be remembered for his kindness and big heart. Everyone who met him became an instant fan of his. He was always there for his family no matter what. Our newest family members refer to him as G-Pop, that's the type of effect he had on those who were blessed to cross his path. We will never forget him for making his famous soup on New Year's day, having family game night, watching a basketball or baseball game & simply giving his heart to all.

If there's one lesson he left behind for his kids is to always love others and treat them with respect, never let life keep you down for he was always on the move. How many 80 something year olds do you know walks faster than you and tells you to try and keep up.

We love you, miss you & will never forget you father, papa, papi, grandpa, G-pop.

Rest in peace, right next to your bride.
