“ I Miss you so much bro. I loved you like my own flesh. Its been a year and ten days and my heart aches all over again and its been ongoing for some time now. I have never come to peace with your passing. I dont understand it for the life of me. I can honestly say I was blessed to be able to see the real you. We was so close and I cherished your advice and I respected you bro. No one can ever make this right to me or ok. Im hurting inside and sometimes catch myself talking to you. We had so much plans bro. We were supposed to take a family trip last summer to Jamaica both your family and mines. I hate the person that took you away from us. Its so hard to let you go but I know you hear my jokes and you see my tears, I know you wouldn't want that and expect me to stay strong. I miss you and love you dearly. One of my most valued friendships. I'll never forget you bro...never “Kemar, Where do I start before I met you I heard so many wonderful things about you from Andre he spoke so highly of you and I couldn't wait for the day I got the chance to meet you. I knew there was something special about you the first time I was introduce to you by Andre you had such a positive energy about and you always made me feel welcome whenever I am at your home. I will miss days when Andre and I are home doing nothing and we would just get dress and come by you to hang out. I use to look forward to coming over because I know I would get a good laugh when you and Andre would have your little playful disagreements especially when you would ask andre " My Yute ah wah wrong wid your head" and then your respond would be to me "Nicola how yuh deal wid di yute yah" lol kemar you are so loved by everyone you are like candle light that will forever shine. Andre miss and love you so much and I wish you didn't have to leave us all soon soon. Thank you for the jerk ribs you made me the last time I saw you it was da bomb lol and hope your beautiful soul rest in peace my dear Brother-in-law I will miss you dearly watch over us all because now your our angle.

“ Psalm 103:8-17

"The Lord is compassionate and merciful, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love. He will not constantly accuse us, nor remain angry forever.

He does not punish us for all our sins; he does not deal harshly with us, as we deserve. For his unfailing love toward those who fear him is as great as the height of the heavens above the earth. He has removed our sins as far from us as the east is from the west. The Lord is like a father to his children, tender and compassionate to those who fear him. For he knows how weak we are; he remembers we are only dust. Our days on earth are like grass; like wildflowers, we bloom and die. The wind blows, and we are gone—as though we had never been here. But the love of the Lord remains forever with those who fear him. His salvation extends to the children's children."

You my friend, will never be forgotten. Your children will keep your memory and spirit alive.

“Kemar words can't explain how I'm feeling right now your passing hurt me to the core my brother and even though death is inevitable I still haven't been able to accept the fact that you're really gone. I'm sitting here at work reminiscing on the good ole days we had together, I remember I was the first to meet you at the park on 2nd street in Melrose Manors when we were getting ready to play football and after introducing you to the rest of the crew you fit right in even inherited the nickname BEAVER. I remember all the crazy stuff we use to do as kids growing up even when we rode our bikes to Fort Lauderdale Beach during the hot summer days... Now that I think about it we were insane for doing that!!! I can go on and on but I'm already crying and my fingers are shaking so I'm going to stop right here but Beaver if you can read this or hear my thoughts I love you and I want you to know that I'll never forget you may the good lord bless your soul and please save me a spot in heaven I want to walk the streets of gold too. CDz for life and after death...

“ *To Kemar our beloved friend:
While this is not the way we all dreamed it would end,
We'll miss your smile, your laughter, and your voice.
For in this decision, we know we have no choice,
But to do our best to keep your memory alive.
For your family, your wife, and your children to survive,
Your great loss.*

“ Each day our lives go on but your forever in our thoughts. It's still hard to believe your not hear. It's not fair someone stole your life. The good truly die young and I wish it wasn't you. The times n laughs we shared were always cherished and will always be cherished. Check for you always my homie....sucks you won't be here to enjoy being a dad and husband...but your in a better place looking down. God always has a plan even when we don't understand it we have to accept it and trust in God for he doesn't give us more than we can bare.

“ The news of your passing is still a shock to me as well as others. You were a good friend and confidant. You always used words of encouragement and enlightenment. They really don't make people like you anymore. It breaks my heart to know you won't be able fulfill your fatherly role to your children and that you will miss all of the events that so desired to witness. It's not fair that you were taken from your friends and family so soon but only God knows best and why he needed you to go back home so soon. You will never be forgotten. And my prayers and condolences to the Austin family. May God continue to comfort you and protect you.

“ "Kat" - Your laughter, jokes, intelligence, presence, support, will truly be missed - but we will celebrate your life and not your homegoing. You will always be in our hearts forever! Thank you for being a good friend / brother to my family. Say hello to my big brother for me - tell him his little sister misses him and to please visit me in my dreams sometime soon. As our Angels Living in the Sky please continue to guide and protect us. They say we're all here on borrowed time, but it's just so hard to accept it when our loved ones time has come. But I know you're here with us, everyday. LMAO - I remember when I was completing my Masters and I would come to you for assistance on writing my discussion posts...you did them so well and so quickly. Such a smart and intellectual young man - Gone to soon but wil never ever be forgotten. We love you Kemar "Austin". My son has a beautiful name that will remind me of you everyday! #SIP Meek$
