“ Uncle Mike you will be sadly missed. Your charisma, warmth and love will never be forgotten. I will always remember my first trip to Jamaica when I was 19 and the affection you had whilst taking me around your beloved country. Like my father now deceased you are the epitome of the meaning of family, both carved from the same stone. I am proud to have been able to call you uncle and spend time with you in more recent years in New York and London. Rest well my Uncle.

“ Uncle Mike, words can't express my gratitude for all that you have done for my mother, my sister and me. Because of your love, support and your help raising me, I am the man that I am today. You didn't just have the name uncle, you played that role very well. I was truly blessed that you were a part of my life and I was able to spend the last two months being around you. SIP my dear uncle. You will be greatly missed.
Love you always, Ainsworth.

“ *My Darling Uncle Mike,
Yours was a life well lived because you were well loved. I am blessed to be your niece and your absence from this worldly plane will never erase the happy times and memories we had together.
When my Dad passed, you were there to remind me that one day I would laugh again, live again and find a new kind of normal without him. You did this by just being you! Now, I must relive this process for you and without you. I'm grateful I could be with you in the time that was left and you were the epitome of faith, strength, courage and love. We will all grieve through the tears but at the same time laugh at our happy memories of you, that was and will always be your superpower! I love you Uncle Mike.*

“ My dearest Uncle Mike...1 of my 3 dads! I was blessed to have you in my life, and I will treasure our times together. For now, I'll leave you with this poem:

Not A Day Will Go By
By Kelly Roper

*Not a minute, not an hour,
Not a day will go by
We won't think of you, Uncle Mike
And smile or sigh.*

*You enriched our lives
While you were here.
Now we must learn to live Without you so near.*

*Time may soften the blow,
But your memory won't fade.
Not a day will go by
We won't wish you could have stayed.*

May your soul rest in eternal peace! 🙏
