“ Dear Nekala and family,
In the short time I got to know your mother, I saw the loving, kind and remarkable woman that you are missing today. She has always been warm and inviting to me Jordan, Chandler and Ashley. I also know she was accepting of Jordan and loved him. I never forgot the time she sent all those lovely gifts for Chandler and Ashley. They were so appreciative of them realizing it was an act of pure love as it was not a birthday or Christmas or any special holiday. That showed me the kind of person Kitty was. She treated them as if they were one of her own grandkids. I have never forgotten that. I know your hearts are broken and while time will help you deal with your grief, I know this you will always feel incomplete without her. However, keep the faith and the belief in a higher power and he will continue to guide your paths. Continue to pray earnestly that the Holy Spirit will come and provide comfort to you all. Her suffering is over and she is at peace. Also, believe that you will see her again one day and knowing on that day you will see her whole and without pain or sickness. Take care of each other and continue to love and support each other as that is what she would expect of each of you. May you find some peace and comfort as you continue to reflect and share fond memories of her life with you. God bless you all.
Love from my family to yours.
