“ For every joy that passes, something beautiful remains. Aunt Cutie, the love and devotion you and Uncle Len demonstrated inspires our family with a model legacy. We will remember what a kind, thoughtful, and generous man Uncle Len was and the love that he shared with his family. May the presence of God and family grant you a warm embrace. Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time.

Judith and Shani Small - Jamaica, NY - Uncle - September 05, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ First, my condolences to Aunt Cutie, my cousins Jackie and Wayne and to their perspective families. I will always remember how Uncle Len used to make jokes that would make me laugh so hard, my stomach would hurt. Keep smiling Uncle while dancing to your calypso tunes!

“ *God called your name so gently
That only you could hear
No one heard the footstep
Of the Angel drawing near....
Softly from the shadow
There came a gentle call,
You closed your eyes and went to sleep...
You quietly left us all*

*In loving memory Lennis from all your extended family in Trinidad.
May you be at Peace.*

Condolences to his children and wife. May God give you the courage and strength thru this troubled time.

“ Death is a terrible problem and God has the perfect solution. May you find comfort in his word at 2nd Corinthians: 1:3,4:

Praise be the God and Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ; the father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial with the comfort that we receive from God.

“ Hyacinth- My heart goes out to you in this moment. I know you are strong and I know you are at peace. But I also know that in this moment you are heart broken. I just want you to know that I love you and you just lean on the Lord he is your refuge and strength. Take comfort in knowing that Mr James knows the Lord and his soul is right. Now you have to take care of yourself until you meet him again. Love you.

“ May our Lord bless and comfort you and your family during this time of grief. Know that a person that departs from this earth never truly leaves, for they are still alive in our hearts and minds, through us, they live on. May fond memories of Mr. James bring you comfort during this hard time in your life. Look back on all the good memories you were able to have and smile at the fact that you were able to share these before the Lord called upon another angel. My heart and prayers go out to you and your family & may God give you the strength and peace that you seek and may the soul of the great Mr. James rest in peace. Amen..

“ Death is nothing at all. It does not count. I have only slipped away into the next room. Nothing has happened. Everything remains the same as it was. I am I and you are you. And the old life that we lived so fondly together is untouched and unchanged. Whatever we were to each other we still are. Call me by the old familiar names. Speak of me in the easy way in which you always used. Put no difference in your tone. Wear no air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at jokes that we enjoyed together. Pray smile and think of me and pray for me. Let my name be always the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without effort or shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it was. There is the unbroken continuity. What is this death; but a negligible accident. Why should I be out of mind because I'm out of sight. I am but waiting for you for an interval somewhere near; just around the corner. All is well.

“Hyacinth, my love. I am so terribly sorry. Just be at peace, know that you were always there and made him happy until the end. He went happy, content, satisfied with the life He shared with you for all these years. What better companion, friend, love could he have been more blessed with. I know that this is difficult, that your heart is broken, but you gave him exactly what he wanted in life- A beautiful home, A beautiful family, Beautiful Children. I love you and my thoughts are with you all.

To his children, You guys lighted his life giving him all the joy in the world, blessing him with his grandchildren. He was crazy with joy, spoiling you all. What more would a father want than to be loved by his family, be in unity with his soulmate, his offsprings, and grand kids. He knew first hand the true meaning of love, he absorbed it to its fullest potential and transmitted his joy. He was loving it so that he was as joyful as a child with it, doing it all because he was genuinely happy. No one can ever say the contrary.

Lenny was truly blessed he certainly received all the desires of his heart, to receive so much love and happiness in life, to have such a wonderful family. He was truly content with the life our creator had given him. His eyes lighted up with joy, so much that he had a warrior's spark to continue on because he did not want to leave. He fought and asked for just a little more time because he wanted to make his family happy. Truly an amazing beautiful being, I will not say goodbye, I thank God for giving me the opportunity to meet him, as I can recall my brother and I trying to help him carry a mattress upstairs. I can still hear his laughter. I will say later Lenny, till we meet again. May you rest in peace in the arms of our creator, run joyfully through the beautiful fields.

I know everyone will be calling you and perhaps you don't wish to speak, but no worries be at peace. Love you all.

“ I shared this message a friend's mom posted after her husband passed away last month with Hyacinth & she requested I share here. "This was the hardest day of my life. When you marry someone you love and begin to build a life, you never think about the day it will all end, the day you will bury the love of your life.....My life will never be the same because he is no longer apart of it, but that doesn't mean that my life cannot be good. I am in more pain that I have ever known, but I know that the Great Healer will heal me deal with that pain. I know with every inch of my being that this was meant to be. I have no idea why and I never will, but that's okay. What I do know is that I have a CHOICE about how I can respond to this devastating circumstance and loss in my life. I can either withdraw from God and life or I can embrace Him and find His purpose in it for me. Ken and I shared life together, 36 years, but he was NOT my life; the Messiah Jesus was and will always continue to be my life!
