“ RIP Tampa, you will always be my favorite mother-in-law and I will never forget those ten commandants you wrote and had me read when we first met. Basically a blueprint on how to treat your daughter LOL. This was a pic at the bubble gum wall in Seattle with her kids and grandkids.

“ Tampa, I miss you so much. I think about you every day. I wake up with you in my mind. I go to bed with you on my mind. I cannot stop thinking about you. I still cannot believe such a vibrant, loving, strong, caring, passionate, intelligent, inspiring, youthful, and energetic person is not walking the planet with us any more. I love you so much. I hear your laughter, see your smile, and see your body dancing. You are the best mother-in-law that anyone could have. You are so thoughtful, understanding and welcoming. I know you did not mean to do it, but you have broken my heart. I am thankful that God did not allow you to suffer long at all. You are a precious gift. Thank you for leaving us your wisdom and knowledge. I am a better person because of you. Thank you.

My mom loved to dance and sing. I will always cherish this memory of us playing her favorite song on the piano. No doubt you are singing and dancing with the angels in heaven. RIP Tampa, we really miss you!!!

Many childhood memories with Aunty Leonie aka Tampa. Her home was what brought the family together. I remember years ago my sister and I visited her and she was in the bedroom watching "Judge Judy" and was enjoying it. I'm sure that day made me a fan of the show and every time I watch it I flashback to that moment and think of her. May God be with us all as we cherish the good times and memories with our lovely Tampa! Love and blessings to you all.
