

Linda Gonsalves

January 22, 1925 - November 27, 2018

Linda Gonsalves was born in Trinidad and Tobago on January 22, 1925. On November 27, 2018, Linda made her transition to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Linda was a woman of great faith whom believed in the power of prayer.

Linda migrated to Brooklyn, New York in 1966, with a desire to pursue greater opportunities for her family. She in turn was instrumental in assisting countless family members and friends in obtaining the same goals. Linda honed in on her cooking and baking skills. Everyone loved to sit at her table and eat the most deliciously prepared dishes. Linda loved to have a good time with laughter, music, and was a delight to see on the dance floor. Linda loved to travel and see new places. One of her most memorable trips, she spoke of with passion was to Africa, and “Bwoy she loved a good bus ride.”

Linda was a beacon of light for anyone who had the opportunity to cross her path. She was a woman of grace and class and exemplified what it meant to extend a helping hand. Linda’s compassion and generosity left a lasting impact on many generations.

Linda’s memory will forever be cherished by her devoted daughters, Glenda Bartholomew and Pamela Phillips, both of Sunrise, Florida; beloved grandson Jamal (Tamieka) Phillips, and loving great-grandchildren Jada and Tamia

Phillips, all of Bayonne, New Jersey. Linda is also survived by David Scott, whom she affectionately loved like a son, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and friends.
