

Mansie Trevor Lloyd Forrest

October 17, 2017 - October 28, 2017

Mansie Lloyd Forrest was born in the afternoon of October 17th 1945 in the beautiful mountain of Cave in the parish of Westmorland Jamaica. He was the third child to parents Mabel Reid and Larry Forrest.

He was a very quiet and respectful child that worked hard helping his grandparents with the farming and caring for the animals.

His mother relocated to Kingston and Mansie joined her in his early teens where he attended school and eventually became an electrician.

He moved to Canada to join the love of his life Phebe.

Where he became a welder and continued to worked hard to support his family.

Mansie eventually moved with his family to the United States.

He is survived by his wife Phebe (Louise) Forrest, mother Mabel Reid-Burguess, sisters, brothers, children, grandchildren, extended family and friends.
