

Marie Walker

November 9, 1960 - July 10, 2019

OBITUARY

MARIE WALKER

On Wednesday, July 10, 2019, Andrienne 'Marie' Nicola Walker, loving wife and stepmother, passed away at the age of 58.

Marie was born on November 9th, 1960 in Kingston, Jamaica to Clinton and Sadie Deeble. A graduate of Holy Childhood High School, she was recruited by the Jamaica Tourist Board (JTB), migrated from Jamaica to the United States to work in the JTB's New York office and studied while there, receiving her degree in Advertising from Iona College, graduating Magna Cum Laude and later earning a Certification in Marketing and Public Relations from New York University. Marie spent over 40 years in marketing and advertising in the travel and tourism industry and was affiliated with the Boards of The American Foundation of the University of the West Indies, (AFUWI); the Caribbean Tourism Organization, USA; Monroe College Graduate School Advisory Board. On June 5, 2000 she married the Honorable Sam Walker, where she became a loving stepmother to Sam Douglas Walker II and Shannon Mulira.

Marie had boundless passion for life and everything that encompasses it: people, food, music and most importantly, travel – especially for the region of her birth: the Caribbean. Throughout the course of her career Marie worked to promote the destinations of Jamaica, Antigua and Barbuda, St. Lucia and Anguilla, launching her tourism marketing agency, TurnStyle Marketing, Inc. Her passion for the hospitality industry and cuisine led her to consult on the creation of Bambou, a 3-star Caribbean restaurant in Manhattan and then she successfully launched and operated a pop-up Jerk restaurant in Harlem: Jerk-to-Go.

Marie often cited the following T.D. Jakes quote to describe her endless drive, “It is your passion that empowers you to be able to do that thing you were created to do” and her passion led her to incredible achievements in her career. Not only did she positively impact the countries she was promoting by driving tourism to each, but she received 11 Awards for her service from the leading agencies in travel including: American Society of Travel Agents, New York Certificate of Recognition, Consul General of Jamaica Award, Anguilla Professional Association of New York (APANY); and the American Marketing Association. Her impact was such that chances are that if you had anything to do with the Caribbean’s tourism industry, you met Marie, or met someone who knew Marie.

Based in New York and Florida, Marie was constantly traveling personally and professionally. Her natural curiosity meant she was constantly trying something new, and wanted each and every person she met to try it as well. Cajoling was Marie’s life motto: it was impossible to say no to her, and in return you knew that you would always have a smile on your face that would last the rest of the day. Marie’s personality meant each and every person would be included and feel her warmth. Her signature ending for any message, voicemail or email – ‘Warmest’ – truly described her. Her warmth was felt by those that knew her, and the thousands in the countries she helped to promote and drive their economy and is her living legacy.

Marie leaves her husband, Sam, her parents Clinton and Sadie Deeble, sister

Jackie Vickers, brother-in-law Michael Vickers, nieces Nicola and Celine, stepchildren Sam Douglas and Shannon and step-grandchildren, friends and business colleagues to mourn.

A funeral service will be held on Thursday, July 18, 2019 at 10 AM (EST) at Cooper City Church of God, 9191 Stirling Road, Cooper City, FL.

“ It January 8, 2021 and I'm sitting in my office when suddenly my friend Marie Deeble Walker sails into my head. I had not seen or spoken to her in years and so I googled and this was an absolute shocker. I was Marie's housekeeper in New York for a few years, the Mignott's and when she moved to Mount Vernon a few occasions. She assisted me in commencing my pre and post commercial cleaning business in New York sharing valuable information. I am forever grateful. Marie and I became great friends to say the least. My kids adored her ...heaven received one of it's best. Sleep in Peace Marie I am heartbroken to hear of your passing. But I do know you have left an awesome legacy. Sincere condolences to Judge Walker and family and Marie's friends. Andrea.

“ Marie was effervescence personified. She carried a light that was lit from within and was joy writ large. Her love of life was evident and lived life on her terms. The world seems a bit dimmer, more bland without her.
Rest in Peace Marie

“ Marie and I were associates in the Tourism Industry when I worked for Air Jamaica in Jamaica New York and Toronto. She was dedicated ambassador and was passionate about her work. She loved people and her job. She lived her life in her way. She was a close friend of my daughter Tania for over 40 years and I knew her all that time.

God has chosen to take her to Heaven at this time, and my deepest sympathy to her Mother, Her Sister and of course her Dear Husband Sam and the entire family.

She was one of a kind and will leave a indelible Mark on those she touched at work and personally " Andrienne Marie Rest in Peace Eternal Rest Grant unto you oh Lord. May perpetual light shine on you Carletta And Davis Sandford Toronto Canada

“ I met Marie in 1999 when working at Gourmet Magazine and age was at the JTB. She loved Nobu and we would take her to thank her for her business. She always ordered the Miso Cod! What a treat it was to share a scrumptious meal with her and laugh about life. She was warm, insightful, friendly and easy to be with. I even included her in my Memoir/Cookbook “Recipes to Remember.” I have since worked with Marie the last 20 years and always encounter that same beautiful energy. I will miss seeing her at Caribbean events. Sam, my heart is broken for you and your family. I send you my deepest sympathy during this time and prayers for healing your broken heart.
