

Marion Gordon Ream

July 15, 1922 - April 30, 2012

Phillips, Marion Ream of Fort Lauderdale died April 30, 2012. She was 89 years of age. A native of Baltimore, Maryland, she moved to Fort Lauderdale at the retirement of her late husband, Major Granville C. Ream. For over thirty years, she was known in the Fort Lauderdale-Miami Area as a talented character actress. As a member of Actors' Equity Association, American Federation of Television and Radio Artist, and Professional Actors Association, she made the most of a career in theatre that began in her early fifties. She was instrumental in founding several regional theatre groups, served two terms as President of Encore Players, and in 1987 was inducted into the Delta Psi Omega Honor Society. A Funeral Services and interment at the Columbarium in Arlington National Cemetery, Arlington, Virginia will take place at a later date.
