“ *The Mclean,s family offers our heartfelt sincere condolences to her daughter june, and the rest of the Davis Family. I became acquainted with Mavis (Aunt Mae) as she was affectionately known by old and young friends in jamaica in 1966. I was then the Detective inspector at Spanish Town Polce. I prepared her immigration papers for Migration to the United States. She and her husband jimmy never stop thanking. Specially When it was realized that a thank you was sufficiently appreciated. Jimmy and aunt Mae eventually became my family friends. Aunt Mae will be surely missed. And live in the memory of all who knew her Rest in peace Aunt mae until we see again in Paradise. “ June, no words can ease your pain, only time and the love of our Heavenly Father. I will miss her beautiful smile and her kind nature. I pray the Lord will continue to watch over you and keep His loving arms wrapped around you.

I love you my cousin.
