

Maximino Marquez

December 23, 1925 - January 8, 2026

Maximino Marquez, beloved father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, passed away peacefully on January 8, 2026, at the extraordinary age of 100. His long and beautiful life was defined by devotion to his family, to his values, and to the people he loved most.

He is survived by his three daughters, who were the pride of his life, as well as six grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren who brought him endless joy. To each of them, he was a steady source of support, encouragement, and unconditional love.

His greatest passion was helping his family in every way he could. Whether offering guidance, lending a hand, or simply showing up when he was needed, he lived his life in service to others. His generosity and strength shaped the lives of everyone fortunate enough to know him.

He will be missed every single day, but his legacy of love will continue to live on through the family he cherished so deeply.
