“ May Jehovah God be with you and your family at this time of sorrow and loss. Remember your father not for the way he passed but for the way he lived and the legacy that he helped to build.

Let the fact of knowing that he is no longer suffering, no longer in pain, no more sadness and troubles of this world. Jehovah has another plan for him and for all of us.

Be comforted in the way he lived and loved.

“ Mrs Nosistel and Family

I am so sorry to learn of Steves passing. Steve and I worked together for close to 20 years. Steve was a great friend and I enjoyed his presence daily. The thing I remember most about Steve is the pride he had in his family and his religion. Not a day passed that he didn't share a story about the family.

I am sorry that I can not be there for the services. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers and may Steve rest in eternal peace.

“ It was my good fortune to work along side of Steve. For many years I knew I could depend on his warm welcome and kind heart!

Many years ago when his daughter Betty moved away Steve came into my office and told me how saddened he was over his "loss." I laughed and said now come on Steve - I will be your daughter - -- that way you have not lost one and I'm right here. Steve laughed and said OK Betty. So from that day forward we always greeted each other with a "Hello Betty!" and a "Hello Dad!" In many a way it was true . . . despite the fact that we are relatively close in age - there was a bond and I always felt that Steve treated me like family!

We have missed him greatly since he retired and have thought of he and his wonderful family often.

Again let me say he will continue to be greatly missed and always remembered for his kindness through life!
