“ A change came about anytime we were in Paul's presence: he had charisma , style, grace , humility and great fortitude. Praying for anyone anywhere was quite easy as he had a peace that could only come from knowing our maker - the God of all gods. It was quite admirable in how he handled himself during his challenges and we can only agree he has fought a good fight , kept the faith and pray that we all anticipate the day of his crowning. Until then, may his sweet soul find eternal rest . Sincere condolences to Lorraine and his family.

“ Lorraine my Sis,

I want you to know that you and the boys are in our thoughts and prayers. May the peace of God give y'all comfort during this season in your life. I wish could be there with you and the family Sis, hoping to see you soon.

Mush love!

P. Sandy, Bishop Alston and the boys!

Mom and Dad of course.
