“ I can't believe you're gone. So many words unsaid, but a season of love tatted with a lion and an angel. Your voice no longer here to narrate the adventures. Your laughter had such reach, now only the sounds of the oceans can mimic the roar of your heart, you had us all from the start. Forever separated in the physical, but holding tighter to the memories, awaiting visits where only souls can meet. Tears fall with thanks to the Most High, I'll see you in the next lifetime.

“ The moment we met I knew there was something about you that I would come to love forever. The time we shared is something I will forever be grateful for. You always made a friend in everyone you cross paths with. My heart will always be in tuned with yours. You gave me the most precious gift of all and that's leaving me with a part of you. Your beautiful son was born healthy with a splitting image of you on December 14, 2022. You will forever be missed my love. Keep smiling as you always do.

“ We first met back in 2010 in North Carolina and from that day, we have always been inseparable. The years of always being there for each other no matter where we were in life. My family (Mother) adores you and surely will miss you. It’s so very hard for me to process this; the way I found out. That same day ; I felt you more than I ever had—like you were warning me. Hope that one day I’ll find closure. But until then; I’ll listen to your words, “see you by the moonlight” my King.
