“ My sincere condolences to those connected to Ricky by blood and by the heart. I met him in March 2020 through mutual friends Junior and Nicolè Thompson when I shared at his church in Florida. He made such a lasting impact with his generosity, humility and kindness. We had in common a love for music, the guitar and the Lord. His reaction to a song I shared reminded me never to underestimate what the Lord could do through simple words and a melody or a life offered up for His glory. He represented the best of Jamaica and how we should live in God's love. I will miss him but by God's will see Him again through our shared faith in the finished work of Jesus. Praying God's comfort for us all but cognizant the Blessed Hope, Jesus the Christ who has conquered the grave.

“ For the short time that I have known Ricky, he's been such a source of inspiration learning about his musical contributions and travels as he played, wrote lyrics and sang.

I have heard him sing and what a soothing voice!

I will miss Ricky from this life but I sure hope to meet him again. I imagine that his voice will be even more soothing in his eternal form.

Dear Dawn and family, I know that no words or sentiment can truly comfort the heart and bring an ease to the pain but I sure hope that the memories will certainly not leave like how Ricky has left but will live on in your hearts.

I'll do what I can do for you - pray, send hugs, smiles and beautiful thoughts to you during this difficult period.

Love you Dawn 💖

“ High Street, Black River. Just a few gates separated us as boys. We couldn't wait for morning so we could find ways to have fun and create mischief. Lloydie, Ricky and Jimmy. Picking mangoes in Dalintober, plums in our front yards, exploring the wonders of the asphalt storage yard as we trekked through the bushes to lot 1. Growing up inseparable, going to school becoming young men testing our strengths and talents. Ricky the musical one, Jimmy the car freak and joker with Lloydie the nerd and serious one. We lost Jimmy a few years ago, now it's Ricky's turn to say goodbye way too soon as well. Leaves only me the last of the terrible threesome. Rest well Ricky, "Hooky2". Hope you and Jimmy will pick up where you left off and enjoy eternal rest and peace. From Lloydie , Micky and the Linton clan on High Street in Black River where it all began 67+ years ago.

Dearest Dawn

I am so very sad about the passing of your dear sweet Richard. Although I did not know him, from reading about him, I can see that he touched upon the hearts of many. He will be sorely missed. He's at peace now and has a place in heaven where he will watch over you and give you and your family the strength and courage to go forward without him- yet his spirit will always be at your side.

Peace, love and prayers.
