Ryan. We were not ready for you to leave us. Your hospitality and your joy of laughter will forever be cherished. You welcomed Nikolas and I into your home many times. And today, we cherish those memories. I sit here so sad knowing that later this evening is the visitation. I want to remember you dancing and singing and DJing and shooting up fireworks from the backyard. I want to see you cooking your amazing brown stew chicken and I want to see you playing dominoes with the family. I want to see you and your son running with the football. That's how I want to see you. But, we can't have everything we want. So I will see you later and I will be there tomorrow too. My heart is heavy and my eyes are already feeling the tears that will flood them. Please know that I'm trying to be tough but I can't help it. Please watch over us. You will be in our hearts forever my friend. Rest in Eternal Glory Dear one. Your friend. Charmaine Jennings & Her Son Nikolas Myrick.

“ Thank you Ry for all the happiness and laughter that you brought to our lives ❤️

Thank you for being that bright light even when the shies were gray.... Thank you for being you!!

Though the years were not enough with regards to ‘time spent’.... You were so much more and a thousand years could never define the indomitable spirit that you were to us!

We will see your beautiful smile in every sunrise of every day....

Walk good our magnanimous warrior... we miss and love you eternally!

Love forever..... Aunty K, Jordan and Jaime 🕊️
