“ Steve was a kindred spirit. I developed many memories with him over the years, from holidays/family gatherings to concerts and festivals and more. His smile could light up a room. I never saw him unhappy, in a bad mood or arguing with anyone. He worked hard, he was pure, funny and always lent a helping hand when needed. He was an earth angel and I'm blessed to have known him <3

“ Steve, I heard the news of your passing and everything around me stopped. I could not believe what I was hearing from our Brothers and Sisters at the Home Depot. My heart is heavy. First meeting you with that big smile and laugh, I knew, I just meet one of the few truly good people we are Blessed with in life. My Friend you will be so missed. R.I.P

“ Steve, I think about you and Danielle every day. I am so sorry that this happened to you both. I will never forget your smile, infectious laugh or silly antics. You were like a brother to me and I will treasure the time we got to spend together. Miss you and love you. Until we meet again, Sondroozzzz <3
