“ It is surely sad to hear of your passing, I will always remember you being so helpful at the Air Jamaica counter. I really tried to come to your memorial, but fate was against me. Sleep in peace, you surely shall be missed by many.

“ Thank for making me laugh. When we were laid off Sophie would come to my home and we would have some friends over. We would cook dumplings, banana and red herring. We would sit on the carpet and eat, we had so much fun those days even although we had no job.. But love carried us through. May God keep you in His bosom. Love Always.

“ My dearest Sophia,
I am so sorry that you've left us so soon. Words cannot explain the pain we feel. Thank you for having shared your life with me. I pray that as you sleep we will find comfort in knowing that one day, we can be together again. I love you and will cherish the memories forever.....love you always. Pat
