“ One of the earliest memories I have of Tom involves me, his brother Dave and a little red wagon. We were about four, five and six years old. I would pull Tom around in his wagon and Dave would hide, then ambush us.

I also remember hanging around at the Kelley's house when we were a little older, usually playing football or baseball. The Kelley's had a Welsh Corgi named Louie and the thing took a real disliking to Tom, always chasing him around nipping and biting at his heels. One day we were playing and Garth Kelley spots Louie approaching and yells, Tommy, Louie, Tommy, Louie!" Tom lit out for home with Louie in hot pursuit! Man that was funny.

Tom had substance abuse problems most of his adult life, but he was always quick to smile and share a laugh. He had a heart of gold and his Mother's disposition. I'll miss him a lot, I already do. I'm sure he's in a better place, saving a spot for his friends and family.
