Resplandor

Me gustaria que el recuerdo de mi, fuera feliz.

Me gustaria dejar un resplandor de sonrisas cuando mi vida termine.

Me gustaria dejar un eco, susurrando suavemente por los caminos;

De tiempos felices y momentos alegres.

De días claros y soleados.

Me gustaria que las lágrimas de aquéllos que lloran por mi, por los recuerdos felices que yo he dejado, se sequen antes del amanecer, cuando mi vida haya terminado.

“ Tia Nenita, Jenny, and George greeted me with tremendous warmth and affection when I arrived in the U.S. more than twenty years ago. That meant so much to me, and is something that I will never forget. I remember that Tia Nenita always spoke in such a soft and sweet voice, and she was very loving. In later years, Barbara and I enjoyed happy times with Tia Nenita, Jenny, George, and the whole family.

We will miss you and always remember you with love,

Orlandito and Barbara

“ Jenny, I am very sorry for your loss and for not being able to be there tomorrow. I was very close to your mother growing up and she used to spend lots of time at our house before you were born. May she rest in peace. Lino

“ So many memories of beautiful priceless moments, we were able to spend as mother and daughter. There were also difficult times, health crisis episodes, and times when I asked God to help us both, see a better day. Life is a very long journey, with a mixed bag of ups and downs. A lesson, a constant challenge, we got through it all, you and me. The most important thing is that we loved each other deeply, this is what matters most! I will remember and miss you, for the rest of my days ... until my time comes! Rest in peace Mami! Your soul is now free!
