“ Today is your birthday it's terrible you are not here had the guys over last night we played dominoes it was not the same as you were missing from the table. Muriel and I got two six love. It's not the same at home its so terrible there you are not in your chair watching "tele" as you used to say. Life will never be the same. You were tired as you said that night rest in peace my dear. I will always love you.

“ Ville was one of the most caring Fathers/Papa's in the world. He will be greatly missed by many. We are so happy we got to see him in Orlando for Alyssa's 3rd birthday this past May. We all really had a great time and took a lot of pictures. His memories will live on in the lives of many including his granddaughter Alyssa. Even though she's only 3, she remembers Ville very well and asks to speak with her Papa every night. We will always cherish the times we spent together, especially when we lived in Florida. He is a big part of the man Andrew has become today and for that, we are very grateful.

We're sure he's resting comfortably and probably playing Dominos with others we have lost.

Rest in Heaven, love Andrew, Leslie & Alyssa

“ Even though I didn't get to see him often I'm going to miss his wit and his humour and the stories he told. I'm going to miss spending the summer holidays with him and talking to him about life back in England. I'm going to miss hearing him say “Bastard knife!” when he fumbles the cutlery after grace.

Rest in Peace

I love you Granddad

“ Grandad Ville was a man who made me smile and laugh all of the time no matter if I was sad, happy, angry o delighted. I loved hin so much and was devastated when I heard the news. Eveytime I spoke or wrote or visited him he made me so happy. I always think whenever we speak how honoured we all are to know and related to Ville.

My happiest memory of Ville was when we were all in Plantation in Grandads house. We was looking at Jordan the Budgee and then we let hin out of the cage. He was flying about for ages and we were all running around laughing trying to catch him. That was the funniest memory with Grandad “ Grandad Ville was a man that always made you smile and laugh if you were happy or sad. He always made me think everytime I wrote,spoke or visited him 'What an honourvwe have to be relaed to Ville Wynter'. He was always there for you no matter what happened.

One of my happiest and most exciting memories of Grandad Ville was when, all of the family were together and we were looking at Jordan the budgee and we opened the cage and he flew around for ages. We were all laughing while running sround frantically trying to catch him. I will never forget that. Ever....

Ville Wynter...Pum.....Grandad
You will be deeply missed?
RIP?

“ I could never have hoped for a better dad....

Ville, was a father who taught me right from wrong (often with the slipper, if necessary) and that hard work is essential in this life to be successful. My memories of my father are of a loving, but strict father, who pushed me to do as well as I could in life. He was proud of my achievements and never hesitated to tell me so.

He was a fun dad, who was always teasing and calling me 'rabbit head' (no idea why), who taught me crazy Jamaican lullabies (Go to bed, daddy's liccle pickney!) and taught my daughter, some of the prayers she still says every night.

My childhood memories of him are of doing the pools, introducing me to rum and raisin ice cream, picking horses for the Grand National race and watching Saturday afternoon cricket, wrestling and Tommy Cooper together. His late night domino games were a constant feature at home.

When my mother and father separated, it was my father that stayed in the family home and cared for myself and my little sister. He was the one who raised us, whilst working nights and cooking and cleaning during the day. It was tough but he did it and did it well.

I am so proud of how he lived his life and affected those around him in a positive way. I will miss him terribly. I love you dad xxx
